FAQ

When I donate jeans, where do they go?

DoSomething, Aéropostale and P.S. from Aéropostale have partnered with over 1000 homeless shelters across the U.S., Canada and Puerto Rico. Your jeans will be donated to a homeless shelter in your local community.

How do I get a coupon for an additional 25% off a new pair of jeans?

Bring your jeans into your local Aéropostale or P.S. from Aéropostale store—you'll get one coupon for each pair of jeans you donate. There's also an awesome contest happening with our coupons. If you texted in the special code on the coupon, you and 3 friends have a chance to win tickets to the DoSomething awards. We'll be selecting the winner Feb 12th!

If I donate more than one pair of jeans, do I get more than one coupon?

Yes. When you donate your jeans at Aéropostale or P.S. from Aéropostale, you'll receive one 25% coupon for each pair of jeans you donate.

What sizes of jeans are you looking for?

Homeless shelters often have a greater need for large sizes, but we will be happy to accept jeans of all sizes for this campaign. All of the jeans should be in good condition.

Is Aéropostale and P.S. from Aéropostale accepting other clothes besides jeans?

For the current Teens for Jeans campaign, we are just collecting jeans. If you have extra hats, shirts, etc., please donate them directly to your local homeless shelter or charity.

Does every Aéropostale and P.S. from Aéropostale store participate in this campaign?

Yes. Every Aéropostale and P.S. from Aéropostale store will be accepting jean donations.

Does it matter what brand of jeans I donate?

Nope. We want to collect as many jeans as possible! All we ask is that they are in good condition.

If I'm a shelter that wants to be involved as a jeans beneficiary, what do I do?

Please send an email to teensforjeans@dosomething.org and we will get back to you about participating in next year's campaign.
